

International Security, Nuclear Weapons and the War in Ukraine

10 October 2022, 15:00 – 17:00

Via Gabriello Chiabrera 199, Roma sala delle Lauree

Hybrid Format

The Vienna Center for Disarmament and Non-Proliferation (VCDNP) and the International Affairs Institute (IAI), in cooperation with the University of Roma Tre, will hold a 2-hour event to discuss arms control, non-proliferation and disarmament and the impact of the war in Ukraine on these issues.

The event will be held on Monday, 10 October 2022 from 15:00 to 17:00 Central European Summer Time (CEST), both in-person at the faculty of Political Science of Roma Tre (via Gabriello Chiabrera 199) and online via Microsoft Teams.

You are invited to join VCDNP and IAI experts to discuss the current geopolitical landscape, with a focus on the impact of the war in Ukraine, assess the threat of nuclear weapons, including their potential use, the state of the non-proliferation regime and disarmament efforts. The event will also include an overview of the work of the EU Non-Proliferation and Disarmament Consortium (EUNPDC), and information on opportunities offered by fellowships, internships, and other initiatives.

Speakers include Ettore Greco and Manuel Herrera from IAI, Hanna Notte and Federica Dall'Arche from VCDNP, and professors Marilena Gala and Leopoldo Nuti from Roma Tre. A tentative agenda can be seen below.

The event can be joined by clicking on this link

The VCDNP and IAI thank the University of Roma Tre for hosting the event. The event is funded by the European Union in the framework of the EUNPDC and the Young Women and Next Generation Initiative.
